

News From the Blues

From the Principal

The end of the year is upon us – end of year exams, finals for the matrics, the matric dance, valediction are all the expectations of the last three months.

Encourage your child to set up a study timetable and goals in order to excel. Try to motivate and encourage your child to establish a good work ethic. They must go over past exams, tests, revise and do as many exercises as possible. Ensure that your child has all their books and material ready for effective studying.

Books should be up to date and your child should have all their textbooks etc.

Try and get study guides. Encourage your child to draw up summary notes.

Parents, as the end of the year draws near please settle your outstanding school fees. We offer a quality education and we constantly try and upgrade the buildings and grounds to offer excellent resources – we need you to pay school fees. We need funds to boost the academics and put a intervention programme into place.

Please ensure that children return their textbooks at the end of the year.

Congratulations to the many sporting codes that have done so well this term –Athletics did drop to C-league but there were some excellent results.

Well done to Jonat-Wakefield for achieving a silver medal at the Prestige Athletics.

Girls and Boys soccer – doing extremely well. U/16 boys – winners of 2 leagues.

Chess and squash also doing extremely well.

Soccer girls ranked 7th out of 32 schools at the St Peter's Festival

Farewell to Ms. Hoosen who has left us to further her studies. Welcome to Mr. Soobiah and Ms. Barreto who have joined the Accounting department.

Congratulations to Mrs. Landsman on the birth of her baby girl.

Bereavements: Thoughts and prayers with our many children who have lost parents, siblings and grandparents. May our Creator give them the courage to bear the loss.

Our sympathies with Mrs. Brenchley who lost her step-father, Ms. Sampson her mother and Ms. Sinclair her brother.

Admissions
Many parents have applied online. Thank you to the many parents who have complied. There will be an admissions meeting 10 November 2016 at 17h00.

Cell phones
We are concerned. Please note that MHS is a cell phone free zone. Do not allow children to bring cell phones to school. If we see it we will confiscate it until the end of the term. We are experiencing lots of problems with social media – cyber bullying and using cell phones to cheat in exams.

Boy-Girl relationships
We are concerned that our children are too familiar with each other. Please speak to your child RE: relationships.

Behaviour
Speak to your child RE: behaviour and being disruptive in class. Teachers cannot teach if learners talk and misbehave during teaching time. The learners must bring their diaries to school, do homework, do revision etc.

Enjoy the midterm break. Next term starts Monday 10 October 2016 – Day 6.

Good News

One of our learners, Nthitiseng Tsotetsi has gone to America for a year as an exchange student. We wish her a wonderful stay over there. We know she'll be a great ambassador for our country.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you’re finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you’re trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Parents, do you know that.....

- We constantly get complaints from community members about our learners hitchhiking for lifts in Columbine Avenue?
 - We constantly get complaints about the way taxi drivers picking up your children behave and drive?
 - We have found taxi drivers doing things with some of our girls that would make your hair rise?
 - We have found taxi drivers with alcohol?
 - We get complaints from the community about our learners walking in the street four abreast and not moving when a car comes along?
 - If you get a My-School card, the school gets a percentage of the money you spend at participating shops?
 - The following stats show how many parents collected reports at the July parents evenings:
 - Grade 8 average collection rate: 89,5%. Well done to 8I which had 100% collection. Sad figures for 8C: only 79% collected.
